

MOTHER FOR THE END TIMES

THE LIGHT THAT SHONE IN GARABANDAL: AN EXPLANATION OF THE SYMBOLISM OF THE MARIAN APPARITIONS AT SAN SEBASTIAN DE GARABANDAL (SPAIN)

19 February 2014

Mother of God: I want to tell you about my call, which has not been understood. I am always the Mother. I am the Mother especially when you need help. My desire is that in moments of unrest, indecision, confusion or danger you will call to me for help. As Mother, I always come when summoned to a child who needs me. I am also the Mother in the middle of the night, the one who watches over the cradle and runs over to console her child when she hears a cry. Especially at night, when the world seems evil and hostile, I am with you through my motherly care. I want to show you that whatever is happening around you, it does not matter how dark or dangerous it is: it is enough to follow my voice and nothing bad will happen to you.

Each of my interventions in the world provides you with guidelines and answers to questions that trouble you. Garabandal is your map for these times. I show you how you should live in order to find me in the confusion of this century and not lose your faith. I ask you to place all of your trust in my motherly love and care for you. If I lead you, and believe that it is so, you need not fear either darkness, a difficult road, or the perils awaiting you. No upheaval can separate you from me, for I am Mother to you, and the more dangerous it becomes around you, the more you will feel my presence. Even your falls do not matter, because if you listen intently to my voice, you will always fall into my arms, and I will raise you with tenderness. I am with you on your journey, I am present in your families; I accompany you in all of your daily affairs. I do not want to be your mother only on holidays. I want to be your mother in your homes, amidst your normal daily activities. I do not care as much for your veneration of me as for your trust, so that I can take care of you, always staying close to you. My sincere request is that you remain close to me.

My whole message is contained within the road as a symbol for life. When you travel along this road with me, listening intently to my call, you will reach your destination with no trouble, despite all the obstacles, without any harm, and readily experiencing my consolation. Your life is a difficult path, full of inconveniences, full of various traps and temptations, but if you travel through life calling me in prayer, you will be in no danger. You will pass over all that other people stumble on. If your hearts are open to my voice and your eyes fixed on Heaven, nothing will be difficult for you. You will not wander, because you will rely on my will and I will lead you. The road of your life should be followed in full confidence, without analysing where God is leading you and why. You should always go where the grace of God leads you, without seeking justification of God's Will, and without seeking the understanding of the people for whom your way may seem a meaningless maze. God knows your path and it is He who leads you. Remember to always trust me and never stray from me.

You should always traverse your life with a rosary prayer on your lips, with your eyes fixed on Heaven and its secrets. You do not have to look at the ground to avoid falling. Falls are dangerous only for those who look to the earth, not for those who gaze at Heaven. Follow me with full confidence. I will always protect you, and although earthly laws will restrict you, do not care about them, because everything in this world is happening by the Will of God. If you really trust God, the earth will surrender to you, because you will use it for higher purposes. You will walk on it, only to spring off of it towards Heaven; you will easily overcome things that defeat others and will outdistance them on the way to me. I am waiting for you all. I call all of you. My desire is that you do not wait for my supernatural call, as I address it to you in a simple and direct manner. I speak to each of you through each sign on earth and through every vocation. Through my grace given to selected souls, I instruct all my children.

Remember, therefore, that although I call you into darkness, though danger is lurking everywhere, you need only trust me and then you will always fulfil my will and serve as an example to others. How carefully I look after those who trust me in all things, without caring about what is human, but awaiting only help from Heaven. Amen.

20th February 2014

Mother of God: That is all I wanted to say for now. I do not want to say more about this. What I have told you should be enough to understand what has happened here and to receive grace as a result of our meeting. I bring grace and blessings to every place on Earth to which I go, just like a mother who returns from far away to her children. I brought a great amount of grace to Garabandal. If people had believed, they would have received this grace. Without faith, however, grace disappears and there is no one to bestow it upon. Humanity must once again turn to Garabandal to receive the grace of forgiveness. The rejection of these messages was to the great detriment of mankind. My daughter, the struggle which you are carrying on in Poland bears fruit at this place for the whole world.*

THE REAL MESSAGE FROM GARABANDAL

22nd February 2014

Mother of God: Write this down, my child. I am here. My gifts of grace have been distributed among you. You will know them soon. But the most important thing is that my Message will again be delivered to the world and this is the greatest gift of grace, because it leads to conversion and turning to God with faith.*

My daughter, convey it to the priest so that he will be rewarded for his zeal in putting things straight concerning Garabandal that have been falsified. For me, as the Mother, the most important thing is that you benefit from the grace I bring to the place of my apparitions. But it always depends solely on faith. As you know very well, the entire Gospel shows that miracles do not happen without faith. God always expects faith to perform miracles, so the absence of miracles means that there is no faith. However, one should also remember that God performs many miracles that are not immediately visible, because they are spiritual miracles.

I am very happy that my Message has been conveyed and repeated to people. I myself have already done so much. I need helpers who will bear testimony to the truth. Do not be afraid to tell the truth. Even if it would cost you much. I have no time to lose, and Almighty God always watches over all of your actions and intentions, God who burns with wrath against the sinful earth, and relents at the sight of the faithfulness and love of those few who have not lost faith. What matters is how your actions and words present themselves before God. Disregard the opinions of the world, because the whole world will pass away, but God's judgments are eternal. See to it that your faith be constant and sincere.

The time is coming when it is essential for you to be in favour of the truth. You cannot be afraid. You should choose in advance. Do you prefer to have on your side the opinion of the world, your friends, family, the media and the public, or rather the

Will of God and support of all Heaven? You must make this choice now and you must not turn back from the path that leads to eternal glory. If you choose the glory of God, you will suffer defeat on earth. But this is only an apparent defeat. All will change when the Truth appears to the world. Remember that you can bear witness to the truth and fight for it right now. Later it will be too late. Make use of every moment to prove to God your unshaken loyalty and devotion. Faith must be first. Always.

The Holy Spirit works in your soul and always shows the safe way. Follow Him. Listen intently to Him and close your ears to the lies and speech of the world. Do not drink the beverage containing death, saying: it will not harm us, because we are fed by the Truth. Yes, but by drinking poison you put God to the test. Therefore, I repeat to you, do not listen to those who lie and remain faithful to the truth revealed to you. Now I bless you all in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.
